
GOULD'S ACADEMY, 1860.

GOULD'S ACADEMY.

We are having an elegant half-tone cut of Gould's Academy made from a photo taken last week for the purpose, and shall in a short time run the cut in the NEWS together with a sketch of the school. This week we give a view of the Academy as it was in 1860. This will be of interest to the students of that time and will no doubt carry some of our readers back to those days. Can you find yourself in the group clustered around the door? We should be pleased to hear from anybody who was in that group. The late Dr. N. T. True had charge of the school at that time and the school was in a very prosperous condition.
